

SARAH LAWRENCE COLLEGE

RETIRED STAFF BENEFITS

Eligibility for retired staff benefits is contingent on a staff member's retirement from Sarah Lawrence College, after a minimum of ten years of service.

As a member of our retired staff, you are cordially invited to take advantage of the following:

Library Borrowing Privileges: Extended to you and your spouse/partner. For information, call Bobbie Smolow, Director of Library Services: (914) 395-2471.

Auditing Courses: With the faculty member's permission, you and your spouse/partner are welcome to audit courses of your choice. For information call the Dean of the College: (914) 395-2303.

Campbell Sports Center: Full privileges in the Campbell Sports Center, for you and your spouse/partner. For information, please call the Office of Physical Education: (914) 395-2560.

Email and MySLC Privileges: You may continue to access your MySLC account using the same ID number you have always used. You may also maintain your Sarah Lawrence College email account. For information, call Academic Computing: (914) 395-2458. Please contact Human Resources at (914) 395-2364 if you do NOT wish to continue to maintain email or MySLC access. Staff who are retiring from certain types of positions (i.e. finance, IT, human resources) may have reduced access to MySLC upon retirement.

Parking: Parking privileges in the Kober Parking Lot can be obtained by registering for daily parking passes with Operations. For information, call (914)395-2385.

College Mailings: Please contact Alumnae/I Affairs (914) 813-9211 if you wish to receive the Sarah Lawrence Magazine and internal newsletters.

Access to Computer Purchase Discounts: Contact Information Systems at (914) 395-2675.
